APSU Writing Center Mission

The on-campus Writing Center at Austin Peay State University fosters a collaborative environment where consultants and students work on writing, brainstorming, outlining, drafting, and revising. Regardless of the assignment, Writing Center consultants are trained to work with students at all stages of the writing process, emphasizing individual learning and accountability and assisting students as they develop as writers. This free resource is available to all APSU students.

Hello from Director Dr. Allie Johnston!

With Valentine's Day quickly approaching, love and hearts surround us! Many people may feel the opposite emotion of love regarding writing. Writing can be anxiety-producing, overwhelming, and unclear. Writing can feel isolating, and we can forget we are writing to other readers. We hope you'll take steps to utilize some of our offerings to support you in having more of a loving view of writing!

Fall in Love with Writing:

- Book an Appointment with us!
- Utilize our resources on our website!
- Attend an event we host!
- Stop by the Center to grab a free pencil and chat!
- Faculty or student organizations, contact writinglab@apsu.edu or use the link on our website here to schedule a writing workshop or event for your class/organization!

Introducing our GTA Assistant Director!

In addition to tutoring, these GTAs assist with administrative tasks including planning workshops, leading class visits, creating resources, and more!

"Hi everyone! As a grad student, I know that this time of the year is when everything starts to pile up. Assignments, papers, group projects...it's easy to get overwhelmed right now. However, the Writing Center has the tools to help all students, including those in grad school, succeed this semester. So don't hesitate to come by, as many fellow grad students work here. We'd love to help!"

Best,
Olivia

Writing Center Activities

Online paper submissions have been moved from D2L to myWCOOnline. This will hopefully create faster turnaround time for paper reviews and prevent more delays or backups.

On February 20th, 2024, the Writing Center will host a Long Night Against Procrastination event with snacks, activities, and ways to help students prep for mid-term papers and projects.

GTA Assistant Director and English graduate student Olivia Melton will be leading a Writing a Term Paper Workshop on Wednesday, April 17th at 5:00 p.m. in Library Conference Room 232

Satellite Hours

ANTS Center: Mondays and Wednesdays from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm
